2.3.2. BILLING DISPUTES (CONT'D)

C. Binding Arbitration

All disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement (whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation or any other legal or equitable theory) submitted to arbitration must be resolved by final and binding arbitration. This includes any disputes based on any product, service or advertising having a connection with this Tariff. The arbitration will take place at a location convenient to Customer, in the area where Customer receives the service from Company.

The arbitration process established by this section is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16 not state arbitration law, shall govern the arbitrability of all disputes. However, applicable federal law or the law of the state where Customer receive the service from Company may apply to and govern the substance of any disputes. Any state statutes pertaining to arbitration, however, shall not be applicable under this Section 2.3.2.C.

If there is a conflict between this Section 2.3.2.C and the rules of the arbitration organization chosen, the rules contained in this Section 2.3.2.C shall govern. If the arbitration organization that Customer selected will not enforce this Section 2.3.2.C as written, it cannot serve as the arbitration organization to resolve Customer's dispute with Company. If this situation arises, the parties shall agree on a substitute arbitration organization. In the event that the parties are unable to agree, the parties shall mutually petition a court of appropriate jurisdiction to appoint a service that will enforce this Section as written. If there is a conflict between this Section 2.3.2.C and the rest of the Tariff , this Section 2.3.2.C shall govern.

A single arbitrator will resolve the dispute. Customer will be informed that participating in arbitration may result in limited discovery based on the rules of the arbitration organization that is chosen to resolve the dispute. The arbitrator will apply applicable statutes of limitation (as modified by this Section 2.3.2.C, will honor claims of privilege recognized by law, and will take reasonable steps to protect customer account information and other confidential or proprietary information, including the use of protective orders to prohibit disclosure outside of the arbitration, if requested to do so by Customer or Company.

Both parties have the right to be represented by counsel in the arbitration. In conducting the arbitration and making any award, the arbitrator shall be bound by and strictly enforce the terms of this Tariff and may not limit, expand, or otherwise modify its terms.

C. Binding Arbitration (cont'd)

The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by a party. Upon a request by Customer or Company, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award. An award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the parties.

If an award granted by the arbitrator exceeds Seventy Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000), either party can appeal that award to a three-arbitrator panel administered by the same arbitration organization. The members of the three-arbitrator panel will be selected according to the rules of the arbitration organization. The party wishing to appeal the decision of the single arbitrator shall have thirty (30) days from the date of entry of the written arbitration award to notify the arbitration organization, through a written notice of appeal, that it is exercising its right to appeal. The arbitration organization will then notify the other party that the award has been appealed. The three-arbitrator panel will issue its decision within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the date of the appealing party's notice of appeal. The decision of the three-arbitrator panel shall be final and binding, except for any appellate right which exists under the FAA.

All parties to the arbitration must be individually named. There shall be no right or authority for any claims to be arbitrated or litigated on a class-action or consolidated basis or on bases involving claims brought in a purported representative capacity on behalf of the general public (such as a private attorney general, other subscribers or other persons similarly situated).

The arbitrator cannot award damages in connection with any dispute that are not expressly authorized by this Section 2.3.2.C and cannot award punitive damages or attorneys' fees unless such damages are expressly authorized by a statute that governs the dispute. Both parties waive any claims for an award of damages that are excluded under this agreement.

Customer is responsible for all additional costs and that Customer incurs in the arbitration, including, but not limited to, costs for attorneys or expert witnesses. If the arbitration proceeding is decided in Company's favor, Customer shall reimburse Company for the fees and costs advanced to Customer only up to the amount that Customer would have paid to file a case regarding Customer's dispute with Company in the state court where Customer receives the Services from Company. If the arbitration proceeding is determined in Customer's favor, Customer will not be required to reimburse Company for any of the fees and costs advanced by Company. In the event a party elects to appeal an award to a three (3) arbitrator panel, the prevailing party in the appeal shall be entitled to recover all reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in that appeal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.3.2.C, Company will pay all fees and costs which it is required by law to pay.

A deposit, including any accrued interest held when service is disconnected, is returned to the customer, less any amounts due the Company. Even though a deposit is made, the customer must still pay bills, including any advance payments, when requested. A customer's payment of a deposit does not waive or modify the Company's practice of disconnecting service for failure to pay any bills. If the Company does not return a customer's deposit after 12 months, the Company shall provide the customer with an explanation of why the deposit is not being returned upon customer's request. Comcast's deposit policy will be administered in compliance with the rules and regulations specified by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The fact that a deposit may have been made in no way relieves the applicant or subscriber from complying with the Company's regulations as to the prompt payment of bills or constitutes a waiver or modification of the regular practices providing for discontinuance of service for non-payment of any sums due the Company for service rendered.

2.3.5. RETURNED CHECK CHARGE

The customer will be assessed a charge of fifteen dollars ($15.00) for each check, draft, or electronic funds transfer, in addition to any late payment charges as specified in Section 2.3.7, submitted by the customer to the Company which a financial institution refuses to honor.

If the customer defaults under the deferred payment plan, all amounts owed to the Company will become payable immediately and the Company may discontinue service. All future bills will be made payable on the due date.
4. Upon receipt of a certificate of illness by a licensed physician, the Company may postpone discontinuance of service to a residential customer.
